Hello, friend. Let me tell you a little bit about myself. As a teen, I captained my debate team to win the Paragon City High School Debate Championships. As an adult, I became one of the world's foremost talking heads and political pundits. You've seen me on FOX, CNN, MSNBC, and our own Paragon News Network.

I've gotten fed up with all the crime in our streets. You can hardly go anywhere these days without seeing someone getting mugged or a car getting jacked.

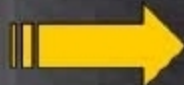

So, now I'm taking my special talents to the streets to convince the evil-doers that doing bad things is wrong. They call me...

The Debater!

A Fowl Plot

While waiting on the bus to take him home after spotting for a sick guest on the McHacklin Group, the Debater spots some disturbing news in the Paragon City Bugle...

Good dear Lord... Major Flanders is opening up one of his fried chicken joints here... in Paragon City.

After jumping into a phone booth to call his broker and dump all of his stock in Major Flanders, the Debater sprung into action!

No time to wait for the bus. Must... get there... before it's... too... late!

As the Debater runs across town, the sun sets below the city's horizon.

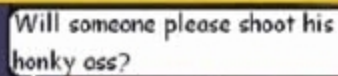

Diabolical. The good citizens of Paragon City must be warned of the dangers of eating fried chicken!

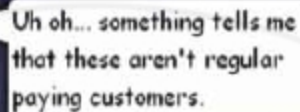

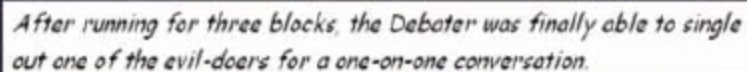

Get him!

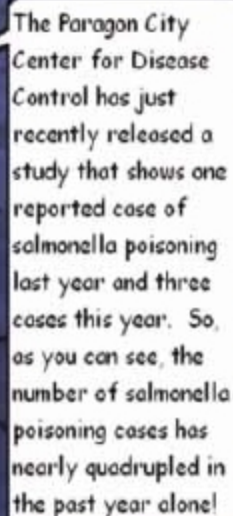

Will someone please shoot his honky ass?

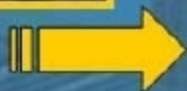

Uh oh... something tells me that these aren't regular paying customers.

After running for three blocks, the Debater was finally able to single out one of the evil-doers for a one-on-one conversation.

The Paragon City Center for Disease Control has just recently released a study that shows one reported case of salmonella poisoning last year and three cases this year. So, as you can see, the number of salmonella poisoning cases has nearly quadrupled in the past year alone!

Look man, I'm going to eat fried chicken because I LIKE fried chicken! You can't change that!

That's it then. You leave me no choice. Prepare to defend yourself!

POW!

Looks like you will be eating your fried chicken in Paragon City Penitentiary from now on.
