

The Debater has a Fascist Faceoff

While covering a class for a sick physics professor at the Paragon City Community College, the Debater heard a scream come from the hallway.

The Debater

has a

Fascist Faceoff

Run! <bleep> have taken over the campus!

What was that? Who has taken over the campus?

<@#$$>, dudel <bleep>! Are you <@#$$> deaf or something, man?

Hold on a second. I think I need to turn my profanity filter off.

Hide! There are nazis right outside of the building! They've taken over the campus!

Nazis? Please, stop being so melodramatic. Kids, these days, always running around screaming "nazi this" or "nazi that" just because somebody made up some rule that they don't like.

Nonetheless, I better go check this out.

Okay, I think that's it. Now, what were you saying?

Run, you idiot!

Could these be the people the kids were talking about?

We are the party of tomorrow! In our government all children will receive an education. In addition, this education will be carefully monitored by the state, erm, government.

JA...er! YES!

You are probably wondering how this could be possible. The answer is simple. Labor camps!

"cough"

I meant government workshops, of course!

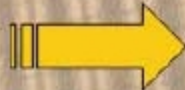

workshop, Fritz... workshop...

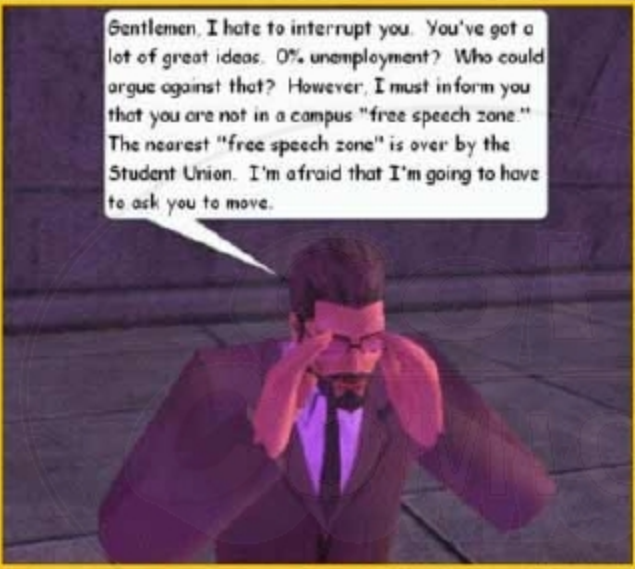

Also, we've take over we vill..

When we get elected we will ensure that every man, woman, and child has work!

...get elected, and watch the accent, Fritz

Okay, that's it. I've heard enough of this. Time to take action.

Gentlemen, I hate to interrupt you. You've got a lot of great ideas. 0% unemployment? Who could argue against that? However, I must inform you that you are not in a campus "free speech zone." The nearest "free speech zone" is over by the Student Union. I'm afraid that I'm going to have to ask you to move.

Hey, wait!

OUCH!!

Keel ze American!

So, vat are you doing tonight?

I'll probably just stay home and catch some old vapors of "Friends."

Ja, sure thing

It's bowling league night for me and the missus. How about you?

Hey, wanna go grab an orange mocho froppuccino?
