I cant even remember my name but i know i used to have a normal life.

I had the logo of menny bucks corporations on my shirt. Thats where my job was your money OR your life loser.

And as a normal guy i was afraid of crimenals

AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

And i thought my job was ferry good. Good food(except for the soda and candy machiens)

I was told i was working for the good of mankind....

But for some reason i didnt believe that...

...and the guards discovert i knew to much. So i was the next experimental subject.

And so where back where i started. And the horrible part must still come.
