Dark Covenant

With pebbles for fingers, you'll need a firmer grip on that sword.

Freeza, I'd love to see you try

Fire Sword

miss

He was trying to intimidate me; shouting the names of his attacks.

I responded in kind.

SEISMIC SMASH

WHAM!

Pathetic! You're like a sad mimic of Devouring Earth.

miss

SCORCH

miss

Dude

That's the third time you've missed.

Heavy Mallet

BOOM!

I was fronting, toying with his head. Truth is, I was scared. Using up my reserves was a big risk, and it was getting late. I should've been back in faultline, but I couldn't, I wouldn't...

...I was having too much fun.

Up until this point, the fight just felt like combat training.

Showdown

You're making this worse on yourself Freeza.

Assaulting a fellow hero never goes unpunished!

And here's your punishment!

Stone man

Fire Sworn

miss

This guy's missing on purpose.

*%~&f$+@#

When he finally hit me, I came to my senses. Where were we going with this?

Freeza, I have a confession to make.

I'm being serious

What, no more big bad policeman?

Woosy. Just don't kiss me.

I am spy; member of the Montello Agency, an elite squad of Paragon City Vigilantes.

We have been investigating the dark covenant since your demon struck the city! However, my job is done now; after filing my report, Anakin sent Clow and I to arrest you.

No way... No way.

How could I have been so blind? A fake. Dark Blazes is a fake?!

You

LIAR!

After that, I had a reason to fight; to protect the Dark Covenant.

I was enraged. Ashamed to have been fooled. Blazes would pay in blood.

I executed my biggest move and kept at him with everything I had...

but I just couldn't break him. Worse, I was fast becoming exhausted.

TAE MOR

Sigh

This guy's dumber than I thought.

Everybody knows that the Covenant works
with demons.

But after months of
spying, you've missed
one vital point.

We're a family.

Suddenly, it dawned on me...

Riozes had only been stalling.

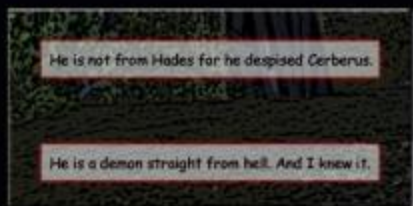

You're beginning
to irritate me!

Goodnight.

Something worse was coming... Claw.

He is not of the Netherworld for he is no hero.

He is not from Hades for he despised Cerberus.

He is a demon straight from hell. And I knew it.

For crying out loud Claw,
you took your time!

Is this him?

Yes. He is leader of the Cerberus' covenant. After stunning him last night, he escaped in to hibernation.
Now, I've tried my best Claw but I just cannot penetrate that iceberg.

What the hell are
you talking about?
I've been waiting
for you all night!

This whole affair
has dragged on for too long Blazes and Anakin is losing
patience with you.
Get out of here, I'll finish this myself.

I won't repeat myself.
Your job's done. I will apprehend this man.

He was here to kill me. And I knew it.

Blazes couldn't have known, so I can't really blame him. Although he will be held responsible for putting me in this position in the first place.

However, I too am to be blamed. I had seen this in my dreams. Azura had tried to warn me, MA6I had gotten involved. Even the Circle of Thorns gave signs.

But I ignored them all.

I don't know if you believe my story, but I sure hope you believe the existence of Satan. Because I am one of those chosen to battle him, and already, he is winning.

This man could kill me and get away with it. He would go after Delta T. Xyneohp and maybe even the whole covenant.

I was truly afraid. With Dark Blazes on his side, the chances were against me, but I could never rest in peace, knowing that I never tried... so I fought.

SEISMIC SMASH

I fought long and hard.

But the fact was, I was tired. I had been away from Faultline for so long, that I was dying from the inside.

I fought to my death.
